

AMOUR'S MILL

You don't yet know of the Moulin Amour situated in the heart of the Oison Valley? This charming spot is full of surprises !

Stroll through the rooms of the mill and bring to light the common objects and tools used by millers in the upkeep of the mill. You are welcome to admire the work of local artists displayed on the first floor reserved for temporary exhibitions.

Outside, the landscaped park makes for an idyllic walk where we cannot help but encounter authentic nature (well, authentic for our side of the world).

Follow the discovery path to the heart of the wetlands where the little river l'Oison slithers along supplying energy for the mill.

Then you can spend some time around the artificial pond and visit the educational vegetable patch that will give you advice and ideas to proceed in a way that will help you attract biodiversity into your own garden. Go one step further and enter the aromatic and medicinal herb garden, a bench at the water's edge is waiting for you.

Hang on a minute, why now do you think we call this place by the pretty name of « Moulin Amour »?

A little clue: the last miller, who left in 1914 holds the key to that secret...
